ORDER DISMISSING ACTION FOR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE

2 the Court's deadline because he contracted Covid-19. Id. at 2-3. He requested a brief extension to 3 September 1, 2022 and represented that he was "almost done" with his amended complaint. Id. at 4 2. He also submitted an "incomplete version" of his amended complaint. Id.; ECF No. 18
5 (Plaintiff's incomplete complaint). On January 13, 2023, finding good cause, the Court granted
6 Plaintiff's third motion for extension of time and ordered Plaintiff to file his amended complaint
7 by January 27, 2023. ECF No. 19. As several months had passed since Plaintiff represented that 8 he was "almost done" with his amended complaint and Plaintiff had filed an "incomplete" version
9 of his complaint to substantiate his representation, the Court explicitly warned that failure to meet
10 this deadline would result in dismissal. Id. The Court explained that it would not entertain further
11 motions for extension of time. Id. To date, Plaintiff has still not filed his amended complaint.

12 The Court possesses the inherent power to dismiss an action sua sponte "to achieve the 13 orderly and expeditious disposition of cases." Link v. Wabash R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626, 629-33
14 (1962). Accordingly, the Court DISMISSES this action with prejudice pursuant to Rule 41(b).

15 The Clerk of the Court shall close the file.
